2024 PITTSBURGH

DOBRO-DRUZI

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Each spring the students of the Czech and Slovak Language School of Pittsburgh (Cesky a Slovensky Svet) participate in a community activity that reminds us all of the importance of “Dobro druzi” - lending a helping hand to others. This year’s activity was conducted in cooperation and with the help of the Wilkins School Community Center. Wilkins School is the location for Saturday morning Czech and Slovak language classes, as well as other events that bring our local Czech and Slovak community together during the year.

In recognition of Earth Day 2024, Saturday morning April 20th, Cesky a Slovensky Svet students and parents were involved in helping with the community center’s neighborhood improvement project.

DOBRO-DRUZI

The younger children participated in a spring clean up of the grounds around the community center while older students took care of painting curbs and steps for the safety of others. Parents helped with setting up a new swing set and repairs to benches. Through the efforts of all, the spirit of "Dobro druzi" came alive again this year in one Pittsburgh community.
